Do you believe that because of your racial or ethnic origin...:

- ... you were denied an interview after applying to a job offer?
- ... you were refused when you needed to rent a property?
- ... you were denied entry to a bar or leisure centre?
- ... you experienced problems when wanting to use a public or private service?

If you have ever found yourself in similar situations to these, you may have been a victim of racial or ethnic discrimination. You should know that this is against the law.

If your rights are breached, there are many steps you can take. If you are in doubt and do not know what to do, and need to consult an expert, you can contact our victims of discrimination support service of the Council for the Promotion of Equal Treatment and Non Discrimination Against Racial or Ethnic Origin.

WE WILL HELP YOU.

We offer:

Information, advice, accompaniment, mediation, conciliation, handling of complaints, etc.

What is the Victims of Discrimination Support Service?

It is a free, state support service for possible victims of racial or ethnic discrimination, given by the Council for the Promotion of Equal Treatment and Non Discrimination Against Racial or Ethnic Origin, professional association affiliated with the Spanish Ministry of Health, Social Services and Equality, through the General Directorate for Equal Opportunities.

The service offers support and independent assistance to those who are or have been discriminated against, based on their racial or ethnic origin, in any context (education, health, housing, job, etc.).

The Council provides its services through an office network of seven organisations specialised in assistance to victims of discrimination:

- ▶ Accem
- ▶ Spanish Red Cross
- ▶ CEPAIM Foundation
- ▶ Fundación Secretariado Gitano [Gypsy Secretariat Foundation]
- ▶ Movement against Intolerance
- ▶ Movement for Peace, Disarmament and Freedom –MPDL–
- ▶ Red Acoge

At these offices, you will find professionals specialised in assistance and guidance to victims of discrimination.
